

CITY MATTERS.

M. M. Kaufman returned yesterday from the East.

Mr. Benjamin Holloway is lying very sick at his residence.

Miss Gummer, of Urbana, is visiting at A. Studenaker's, West Pleasant street.

Business must be booming out at Indianapolis in railway and grain circles. Six freight trains were trying to get into the I. B. & W. yards at one time yesterday morning.

Ground has been donated for the Soper Foundry Company to put up their establishment, and without much doubt Springfield will soon add this to her list of manufacturing. The ground lies west of the steel works—between there and Whiteley's shop.

Harry Fisher returned from Dayton yesterday. The Dayton club applied for admission to the Western League yesterday, and it seems all settled that Springfield will make a part of the same association. Mr. Fisher mailed the contract for his battery this morning.

Xenia has still another social sensation in the alleged discovery by T. C. James, a grocer there, of his wife's marital infidelity. The disturbing element is one, Shumate, a workman in a twine factory. Mrs. James is a daughter of John Hansel, of Yellow Springs, a most highly respected citizen of that place.

Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette: "Mrs. Chas. Washington gave a very pleasant party at her residence on Thursday evening in honor of her friends, Mr. and Mrs. John Montgomery, of Springfield, O. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. John Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Washington, Mr. R. C. Faulkner, Miss Josie Parker, Mrs. Isaac Britton, Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas and others."

The mayor's court disposed of a number of cases yesterday afternoon. The police are somewhat increased that a heavier fire was not imposed upon McQuinn and McKinley, the two fellows who resisted the officers so desperately Thursday night. One dollar and costs on each of the three charges of drunkenness, disorderly conduct and resisting an officer does not seem like a very mild punishment for so serious an offense. Several cases were postponed until today on account of absence of witnesses.

Fred. Mussey's Washington correspondence: "All reports I have gathered from Ohio men here from all parts of the State are encouraging to the Republicans. There is a general disposition shown among the Democracy to get in out of the coming blizzard, and a feeling that the little Democratic picnic in that State is nearly over, and that the reversion to begin in the city elections will go on and deepen until the October election will sweep out of office the present incumbents and reclaim the State."

Judge Goode held a brief session of Common Pleas court without transacting any business of special interest this morning, and this afternoon Judge W. R. Warnock, of Urbana, is hearing some cases in which Judge Goode is, indirectly, an interested party. The assault and battery case against Michael W. Moran, the ex-police-man who flourished at the Seventh ward polls at the last October election, was dismissed, after having been continued from time to time. Cases on both dockets set for jury trial Monday next have all been otherwise disposed of and there will be nothing for the jury to do before Wednesday certainly. There are several important assignments not yet reached on the list.

Two weeks John Shank, living west of the city, in the Meltinger neighborhood, attended market, and complained to others of a sharp pain in one of his thumbs, as though caused by a thorn. The pain became so severe that he went to a doctor, who at once pronounced the cause to be a bone felon, for which treatment was given. The trouble increased rapidly until at last the arm was frightfully swollen, to the shoulder, and last night Mr. Shank died after suffering terrible agony. It was supposed, in the effort to save his life, to amputate first the thumb, and when too late for that to effect the purpose, the hand, but consent could not be obtained, and fatal results were inevitable. Deceased was a leading prohibitionist and stood well in the community.

The Cincinnati Enquirer, of the 14th, says: "Ex-Speaker Keiser, who has just returned to Springfield after a long congressional career, has been tendered a banquet by his neighbors, and has accepted in terms conveying his keen appreciation of the compliment. The banquet is announced as a non-partisan affair, and several Democrats are expected to participate; but there is a quiet understanding that the 'red' may promote the gubernatorial chances of Keiser. There was a time, not far in the past, when the ex-speaker's political career might have been beyond hope of resurrection; but he was badly treated to the congressional primaries in Clark county last year, besides being abused by a class of Republican papers who always kick a man when they think he is down, and a good deal of sympathy around in his behalf. B sides, he has a military record that is calculated to secure him the lasting friendship of the 'soldiers'."

There is "no quiet understanding that the 'red' may promote the gubernatorial chances of Keiser." The affair will be absolutely non-partisan and non-political.

National Gun Association to Meet in Springfield.

There is a strong probability that the first meeting of the National Gun Association, recently organized at New Orleans, will be held in this city in May next, continuing through two or three days, and bringing to the city two or three hundred crack shots, from the South and West, to contest for prizes. Dr. L. E. Russell received a letter this morning from the president of the association, favoring such location, and asking for particulars as to railroad and hotel facilities, the rifle range in use by the local club, and information on other points essential to be known in making a selection. Dr. Russell thinks he can make such an exhibit of facilities and attractions as will insure a decision in favor of Springfield.

LATER.—Dr. Russell received a telegram this afternoon from J. E. Bloom, general manager, that it is definitely settled that the meeting of the association shall be held at Springfield. Dayton scooped once more!

THEY ARE COMING!

ROUSE & PARSONS, 26 S. MARKET ST.

A Raid on Tramps.

A telephone message was received at the patrol house yesterday at 6:30 p. m., asking that the wagon run out to Lagonda and run in a crowd of tramps who had built a fire and were making themselves extremely comfortable, about a half a mile beyond that thriving suburb, near the C. C. & I. railroad track. Happening to come along just as the wagon was starting on the expedition, a GLOBE REPUBLIC reporter jumped in and went along to see the fun. Arriving at Lagonda he found all the able bodied citizens and several boys and girls turned out to give the officers and wagon a reception. There was no lack of guides who volunteered to show the way to the lurking place of the obnoxious pedestrians, and the procession was soon under way. It seemed very romantic, that tramp for a half or three-quarters of a mile along the race bank, at times slipping and sliding half way down the bank, and anon tearing out one of the most cherished members of your mustache on a thorn tree. However, the scene of operations was finally reached and the larger part of the somewhat numerous retinue halted while officers Foster and Mills and the aforesaid reporter advanced to the fire and held a parley with the supposed desperadoes. Some eight men were sitting around the fire and under a pile of coats, shirts and socks was found another dead drunk. After considerable saucy talk on the part of the tramps and some plain language from the officers, the latter produced their handcuffs and proceeded to secure their prisoners. While the officers were busy putting the dandies on two or three the rest began to scatter and run. Seeing this Foster, addressing no one in particular, shouted out to grab some of them and hold them. The reporter accordingly, with the bravery which is characteristic of him, selected a tramp whom he thought too drunk to be very desperate, and with rare courage watched the desperate villain until the officer was ready for him. The villain in the meantime endeavored to knock him with his breath, but the reporter saw him and went him one better. Four of the tramps were secured, including the one who lay on the ground dead drunk. The question now was how to get this fellow across the railroad bridge to the wagon. He was finally shaken into a half sober state and, supported on each side, got along without much trouble. After the wagon was reached the labor of the expedition was all over and the fun began. It turned out that the most of those who had congregated around the fire had just been discharged day before from the chain-gang. One of these captured remarked that he wouldn't mind being taken very much if they only gave a little more feed at the station-house. Altogether, the party was in good spirits, and it would have required a lively imagination in an observer to mistake it for a funeral cortege. The names of the tramps, as given at the station-house, are mentioned in another place.

Tom Robinson Does Up a Novice.

The Springfield pugilist, Tom Robinson, "appeared" in the great sparring exhibition at Columbus, Thursday, and the Ohio State Journal thus speaks of his performance: "The next bout was awaited with more interest than the first, as it brought to the front Henry Krothofer, the Pickaway county giant and good-natured and honest appearance deepens the impression. The first round seemed to be in favor of Krothofer, but in the second and third the colored man showed his superior science by hitting his big opponent about when-ever and wherever he wished. The two were evenly matched as far as weight was concerned, each tipping the beam at more than 200 pounds, and the blows given and taken were correspondingly heavy, but did no damage worth mentioning, although Krothofer went down once. The three rounds were all good-natured, and the contestants received a generous round of applause for their moneyless efforts to please the audience."

Death of a Pioneer Woman.

After an illness of four months with Bright's disease of the kidneys, Mrs. Athalia Printz, relict of Peter Printz, an older sister of Mr. Oliver S. Kelly, passed away at midnight, at the Printz home, about four miles south of the city. Deceased was born in August, 1822, at the same place, on the Clinton road which was the birthplace of her brother Oliver, and had always lived in the neighborhood; for the past forty-three years on the spot where she died. She was in her sixty-third year and survived her husband twelve years, he having died on the 17th of March, 1873. She leaves a family of eight sons and daughters, all grown up, all of whom were present at their mother's bedside when she died. Mr. and Mrs. Printz were both members of Emory chapel, M. E. Church. Deceased was an exemplary Christian, held in high esteem by a wide circle of relatives and acquaintances. Her good works do follow her. Funeral services will be held at the house at half-past two o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Interment at Ferncliff cemetery, city.

Al. Barr, of Cedarville, Ohio, was relieved of a gold watch while visiting South Charleston, Friday. The thief escaped.

Dr. Carson's Nerve Tonic, FOR MEN.

This medicine has been used by me in my practice for many years, for the treatment of Nervous Prostration, Abundant Mucous, Mental Derangement, Spermatorrhea, Impotency and all affections of the kidneys and generative organs, with the most gratifying results. I have never lost a patient who used it, but it has saved the lives and restored the health of thousands, who had not been for its timely help, would have ended their days in insupportable agony or have sunk into premature graves. I am now giving up the active practice of medicine, and desire to place this TONIC where it will do the most good. I have therefore had it put up in full form, in bottles of 50 and 100 pills, free from observation, to all parts of the world. In my office, while I was engaged in the practice of medicine, I have been pronounced "incurable," are now more satisfied than ever with the results of the use of the NERVE TONIC. A large and varied experience has shown that no medicine known to the profession will restore lost vitality more rapidly and permanently than this. Every form of Nervous Weakness, especially that of the generative organs, such as Spermatorrhea, Prostatitis, Impotency, etc., is completely cured by it, and often by a single box. Below is an endorsement of it by the distinguished editor of HEALTH AND HOME, Dr. Hale, who knows of its virtues by having used it successfully in his own large and lucrative practice.

SINGLE BOX, $1.00; SIX BOXES, $5.00. Address DR. CARSON, 723 Twelfth Street, Washington, D. C.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 15th, 1884. We have known Dr. Carson for several years, and we know what he states in the above advertisement to be literally true; in fact, in our own hands the Tonic has done much more than the Doctor claims for it. He is an honest and reliable physician.
